

FUTURE PERFECT

FORM	USE	EXAMPLE
will + have + past participle	An action that will be completed before a specific time in the future.	I will have finished my homework by five o'clock.

Complete the sentences.

- _____ you _____ (finish) your homework by the time the film starts?
- She _____ (have) the baby by the end of the month.
- Do you think that you _____ (get) married by the time you are 20?
- In fifty years' time the pollution _____ (double).
- She's so lazy. I bet you that she _____ (not do) anything when we get there.
- My dad _____ (retire) by 2020.
- There's no point in going now - the film _____ (start) when we get there.
- We _____ (not reach) the camp site by nightfall.
- School _____ (start) by the time we get back from holiday.
- The battery _____ (go) flat before I can get home.
- You can call me at work at 8 am. I _____ (arrive) at the office by then.
- They will be tired when we arrive. They _____ (not sleep) for a long time.
- Unless further action is taken, the black rhino _____ (become) extinct in a few years time.
- If global warming isn't halted, a large part of the polar caps _____ (melt) in 50 years' time.
- He _____ (break) that toy by the end of the day.